

2. Why do you want to work here?

A: “I admire the company’s focus on innovation and sustainability, and I see a strong match between your goals and my background in operations.”

B: “I like the culture here and people speak highly of the teamwork. I also think it’s a place where I could grow and contribute straight away.”

3. What are your strengths?

A: “I’m organised, analytical, and very reliable under pressure. I deliver on time and communicate clearly.”

B: “I’m good at breaking down complex problems and keeping people aligned. Colleagues often say I’m steady and dependable.”

4. Tell me about a challenge you faced and how you handled it.

A: “In my last role, a supplier delay threatened a deadline. I coordinated with the team, found an alternative vendor, and kept the project on track.”

B: “We had a miscommunication that slowed a project. I brought everyone together, clarified roles, and we finished ahead of schedule.”

5. How do you handle pressure or tight deadlines.

A: “I prioritise tasks, break them into steps, and communicate early if something needs support.”

B: “I stay calm, focus on what I can control, and make sure the team knows exactly what needs to happen next.”

6. What is your biggest weakness.

Answer A:

“I can be overly detail-focused, but I’ve learned to set clearer time limits and check in with colleagues earlier.”

Answer B:

“I used to hesitate to delegate, but I’ve been practising trusting others more and it’s improved team efficiency.”

7. Where do you see yourself in five years.

Answer A:

“I hope to be in a leadership role where I’m managing projects and supporting junior colleagues.”

Answer B:

“I’d like to deepen my expertise in strategy and eventually take on more responsibility within the organisation.”

8. Do you have any questions for us.

Answer A:

“Yes — could you tell me more about the team I’d be working with.”

Answer B:

“I’d love to know what success looks like in this role during the first six months.”
